

We provide opportunities for the preservation of open space and the development of recreational resources within the Channahon Park District

2016 ExxonMobil Community Philanthropic Award Recipient – Terry D’Arcy

The list of Terry D’Arcy’s community involvement is endless and includes significant service for the following organizations: United Way, Will County Pillars Society, Joliet Park District Foundation, University of St. Francis, Right Moves for Youth, Joliet Franciscan Learning Center, Joliet Area Historical Museum, Presence Saint Joseph Medical Center and Meals on Wheels.

Currently, Terry is part of the following Professional Organization:

- President of Buick GMC Chicagoland Northwest Indiana Dealer Association Since 2010
- Former Member of Illinois Toll Highway Authority
- Member of Buick GMC National Dealer Council Since 2013
- Board of Directors, for First Community Bank Since 2004

Mr. D’Arcy has been the recipient of many notable awards including:

- Joliet Junior College’s J.D. Ross Extraordinary Service Award
- Community Service Award from Illinois Parks and Recreation Assoc.
- Sam Walton Business Award
- Philanthropist of the Year from the Southwest Suburban Philanthropic Network (SWSPN)
- United Way of Will County “Roger Osman” Distinguished Volunteer Award
- U.N.I.C.O. Person of the Year
- D’Arcy Automotive Group awarded the “2008 Business of the Year Award”, by the Joliet Region Chamber of Commerce
- Representative, Tom Cross’ “Ovation to Business Award” November 2011
- Joliet Region Chamber of Commerce “Rabbi Hershman Community Service Award” November 2013.
- University of St. Francis & Joliet Chamber of Commerce “Marx Gibson Community Leadership Award” November 2013.
- Presence St. Joseph Medical Center, Founders Award for Outstanding Community Service in 2009
- Silver Cross Hospital Sangmeister Medal of Excellence Award – November 2013
- D’Arcy Automobiles Awarded the 2015 “Walk the Talk” Award by the Spanish Community Center May, 2015
- Senior Services Center – 2015 Community Leader Award Recipient

As President of D’Arcy Motors, Mr. D’Arcy oversees one of the region’s largest automobile dealerships. His success as a businessman has never overshadowed his unselfish support to numerous area organizations through both personal involvement and corporate sponsorships. Mr. D'Arcy has provided his time, talent and resources to charitable events.

Terry and his wife, Sue, reside in Shorewood. He is the father of four sons.

